

Kentucky State Beekeepers Association

Why should you join the Kentucky State Beekeepers Association (KSBA)?

1. Meet new friends in all areas of the beekeeping industry and all stages of learning at the Spring and Fall meetings.
2. Opportunity to participate in the Certified Kentucky Honey Program.
3. Opportunity to have your honey bee related products and services listed on the KSBA website.
4. Opportunity to sell honey at the Kentucky State Fair Honey Booth.
5. Free email subscription to news about Kentucky beekeeping.
6. Be part of identifying common problems facing beekeepers.
7. Share ideas and information about treatments for disease and pests.
8. Help support vital research programs that directly affect your operation.
9. Participate in forming and influencing legislation that affects our industry.
10. KSBA works to increase public awareness of the benefits of consuming local honey and hive products.
11. KSBA provides $100 startup money for new local beekeeping associations.
12. KSBA supports beekeeping schools across the state by paying them $3.50 per attendee.
13. KSBA provides liability insurance for local associations' programs and events if KSBA is physically participating in the program or event.
14. Help determine the direction of KSBA - local associations have a voting representative on the KSBA Board of Directors.
15. If you join KSBA through your local association, your local association gets to keep $2 of the $15 KSBA membership.

For more information about our association, our calendar of beekeeping events throughout the state, and other important information for Kentucky beekeepers, visit:

www.ksbabeekeeping.org